HEART'S DESIRE

Niamh Parsons

DUBLINER Niamh Parsons had a special incentive when she set about recording this, her latest CD on the Green Linnet label. Heart's Desire is dedicated to her late father, Jack Parsons, a man with, according to Niamh, a beautiful voice and a great ear for a good song. Like father like daughter. Niamh Parsons has won considerable praise for her vocal talent and has been compared to the likes of Dolores Keane and June Tabor. Fans of both traditional and contemporary music can judge for themselves with Heart's Desire, available in stores or from Green Linnet at (203)730-0333 or www.greenlinnet.com.
